SUBJECT No. 132.

Repairs to the Sri Lakshminarasimhaswami temple at Hole-Narsipur out of State grant.

Mr. K. Narnappa, Hole Narsipur Municipality.

Summary of discussion. —The temple of Sri Lakshminarasimhaswami at Hole-Narsipur, which is an old reputed major institution, may be repaired out of State Funds, since the amount at the credit of the institution is very small. See /.

Second Member of Council.—No money can be given out of the State Grant.

With a view to accumulate funds for the repairs of this institution, the question of sanctioning the levy of tax on shops, cattle, etc , assembling during the time of the annual Jatara of the institution is under the consideration of Government.

Sir,

With reference to ~~your~~ subject No.183 brought forward by you at ~~of~~ the last Dasara Representative Assembly regarding the repairs of ~~to have~~ the Sri Lakshminarasimhaswami temple at Holenarasipur ~~repairs~~ out of State Grant, I am directed to ~~inform you~~ state that no money can be spared for the purpose out of the State Grant ~~and it is only by levying tax on shops, -- cattle etc., collecting during the annual jatra of the temple, that sufficient funds could be accumulated. This latter question is under the consideration of Government.~~

And that the question of improving the financial condition of the temple by levying tax on shops, cattle &c at the annual jatra is under the consideration of Govt.

I have, etc.,
